

SECRETARY OF THE ARMY
WASHINGTON

10 JUN 2013

MEMORANDUM FOR SEE DISTRIBUTION

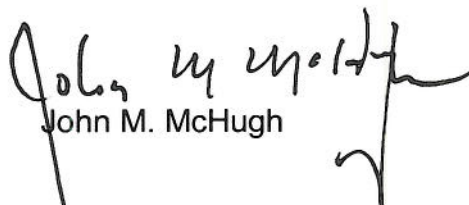

SUBJECT: Army Directive 2013-14 (Temporary Early Retirement Authority)

1. Reference Army Directive 2012-25 (Temporary Early Retirement Authority), 24 Sep 12 (hereby rescinded).
2. This directive authorizes implementation of an early retirement program consistent with the provisions of Public Law 112-81, National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2012, Section 504, enacted 31 December 2011 to include Active Guard and Reserve officers.
3. Retirement with at least 20 years of service has been, and will continue to be, the basic entitlement for those personnel who complete a career in the Army. This temporary early retirement authority (TERA) is a discretionary authority and not an entitlement.
4. Soldiers denied continued service with an established involuntary separation date as a result of a Department of the Army centralized selection board process, including the Director, Army National Guard's force shaping centralized separation board for Title 10 officers, who meet all eligibility criteria outlined below may request TERA in lieu of involuntary separation:
 - a. Noncommissioned officers denied continued service as a result of the Qualitative Service Program centralized selection board who are serving on active duty and have completed 15 but less than 20 years of active service as of the established involuntary separation date.
 - b. Officers and warrant officers placed at risk for continued service by virtue of non-selection for advancement by Promotion Selection Boards, or for separation by force shaping centralized selection processes, who are serving on active duty and have completed 15 but less than 20 years of active service as of the established involuntary separation date.
 - c. These basic eligibility requirements may not be waived.
5. Soldiers pending evaluation for disability retirement under 10 U.S.C. Chapter 61 are not eligible for early retirement under this directive.
6. Qualifying Soldiers who wish consideration for early retirement under TERA must apply in accordance with the procedures disseminated by U.S. Army Human Resources Command or the Army National Guard Bureau G-1, as appropriate.

SUBJECT: Army Directive 2013-14 (Temporary Early Retirement Authority)

7. Soldiers approved for early retirement will not be eligible for involuntary separation pay, but remain eligible for transition assistance benefits until their retirement date.

8. This directive is effective immediately and will be rescinded on 31 December 2018, if not withdrawn sooner.

John M. McHugh
